Juche 112 (2023)

At the Third Plenary Meeting of the Eighth Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea supplying dairy products and other nutritious foodstuffs to all children at state expense was adopted as a policy.

Production capacity for delicious and high-nutritious milk powder and yogurt has been expanded in all areas of the DPRK to supply them on a regular basis to all children across the country.

As all sorts of flowers are in full bloom under the warm sunlight, so new generations of the DPRK are giving full play to their talents and growing up vivaciously thanks to the benefits granted from the loving care of the motherly Party for them.

We Are the Happiest in the World

Supplying school things, bags and uniforms to all children and students at state expense has become an important state affair that should be implemented unconditionally in whatever conditions and circumstances.
