In order to meet the demands and features of modern warfare and cope with the ever-changing enemy's war scenario and execution mode, it should keep enhancing its capabilities for fighting a war by intensifying research into our own style of tactics, giving an uninterrupted spur to the work of putting its operations command on an IT and modern basis and steadily studying and applying scientific forms and methods of training.

We should also keep pushing ahead with fully preparing the civil defence sector for a war.

Kim Jong Un clarified the strategic and tactical policies for more reliably guaranteeing the bolstering of war deterrence for self-defence through accelerated progress of defence science and technology and radical development of the defence industry to cope with the ever-increasing military provocations of the US and its vassal forces against the DPRK, and set forth the tasks for their implementation.

Saying that next year's struggle for successfully carrying out the decisions of the Eighth Congress of the WPK requires the Party organizations, the political staff of relevant sectors and units, to enhance their functions and activities more than ever before, he stressed that all Party organizations should dynamically conduct their organizational and political work to attain their struggle goals without fail by making sound preparations and redoubled efforts.

In particular, all Party officials should bear in mind once again the true meaning of the slogan "Everything for the people and everything by relying on them!" and devote their all to the work for the people, as intended by the Party Central Committee, he said, adding:

The unprecedentedly harsh situation will persist in the future, too, but the invaluable experience and lessons, gained and drawn in this year's intensive struggle for ushering in a new era of transformation unprecedented since the founding of the nation, and our confidence and internal force that have grown a hundredfold will surely encourage us to attain with credit the goals we have set.

He then ardently called on all the participants to remain true to their heavy duty and responsibility they have assumed for the times and revolution and the country and people, and wage a bolder struggle with higher confidence in the vanguard of the general offensive for a great victory and glory in 2025.

It discussed the third agenda item "On the new regional development policy of our Party and its future tasks."

Kim Jong Un said that the Regional Development 20×10 Policy, which our Party regards as a crucial political issue and the supreme task for fulfilling its cherished desire and is dynamically pushing completed correctly and in a practicable way so that they can be operated smoothly at the present stage can we surely provide a firm basis for regional development and open up a dynamic phase in which cities and counties can simultaneously undergo a change and rejuvenation, and proposed to the plenary meeting that the Party's new regional development policy formally include the construction of advanced public health facilities, scientific, educational and leisure facilities and grain management facilities in parallel with that of regional-industry factories.

Speeches were made on the third agenda item.

The plenary meeting discussed the fourth agenda item "On the enforcement of a series of measures for strengthening the educational foundations of the country."

A report on the relevant agenda item was made.

Kim Jong Un made a concluding speech on the fourth agenda item.

Noting that education is the first state affair that should be given priority and that demands tremendous effort at any time and at any stage and the most important sector that has to make steady progress, he referred to the precedence, necessity and significance of its development.

He said that, according to the tasks set forth at the sixth and eighth plenary meetings of the Eighth Party Central Committee, practical measures have been taken to readjust the educational structure of the country for giving advanced education and improve the contents and methods of education more reasonably, and the socialist policy for the students is being consistently carried on together with the work of training reserve teachers on a long-term basis. Despite the proud qualitative changes brought about in this sector in recent years, the overall educational foundations are yet to respond to the requirements of the times and the revolution, he pointed out, and made a strict analysis of the present situation in the educational sector and indicated the immediate, medium- and long-term tasks to be fulfilled through the investment of the national efforts on the responsibility of the Party and the government in order to consolidate the foundations of education, saying:

Now that we have set an aim of building a state which gives the greatest importance to education and is most advanced in education in the world, we should definitely take the direction of supplying school things, supplies and equipment and providing the educators and students with the best working and studying conditions on the full responsibility of the state.

He then indicated the intention of bringing up the above-said agenda item as a special one at the plenary meeting and the practical ways for putting the educational foundations of the country onto a new high in the shortest period possible.

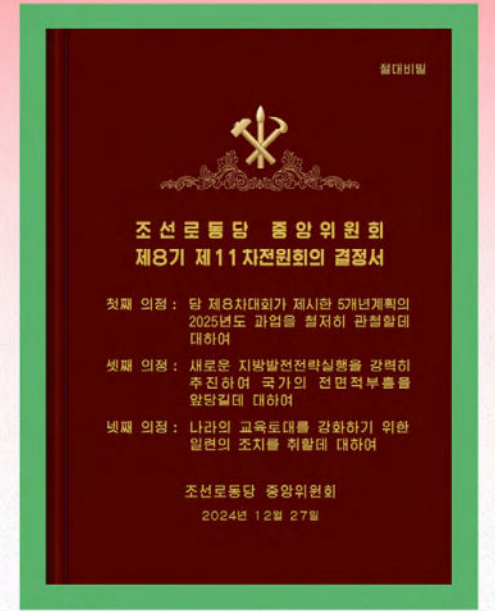

Stressing the need to push forward with the modernization of schools, which claims a lion's share in strengthening the educational foundations, as a state undertaking, and set an ambitious goal to renovate all schools across the country within the next decade and forward as the top priority revolutionary task, is an eventful decision and unprecedentedly huge creative struggle, the first of its kind since the founding of the Party and the state, which is aimed at providing the people across the country with a new, affluent and civilized life in a matter of ten years and rapidly raising the level of development in all regions.

Referring to the intention of the Party Central Committee to additionally build public health facilities, cultural complexes and grain management facilities in the cities and counties across the country, considering that the construction of some regional-industry factories in each city and county is not enough to completely eliminate the centuries-old backwardness remaining in local areas and put them on a sustainable development track, he gave an overview of the significance of the construction of the three essential projects and the specific orientation of construction.

He said that only when the aforesaid construction projects are

It finally examined the implementation of the state budget for 2024 and the draft state budget for 2025 and approved the submission of the document on them to the Twelfth Session of the 14th Supreme People’s Assembly.

Kim Jong Un concluded the plenary meeting.

Next year is a significant year marking the 80th founding anniversary of our Party and at the same time the year for the Eighth Party Central Committee to review its work before the times and the people, he said, pointing to the need to make 2025, the last year of its term,

He ardently called upon the entire Party, the whole country and all the people to turn out in the sacred patriotic struggle for the comprehensive rejuvenation and development of our great state and achieve miraculous successes, thus greeting with honour the Ninth Party Congress as a glorious meeting of victors.

The December 2024 Plenary Meeting of the Central Committee of the WPK wrapped up its responsible work amid high political awareness and burning enthusiasm of all the participants to remain faithful to their duty as the leading personnel of the revolution to the last in the first rank and vanguard of the struggle to implement the Party’s policies, cherishing the great trust of tens of millions of people.

push forward with it persistently so as to carry it through to the end without fail, he set forth measures to this end.

Inauguration Ceremony of Houses in Flood-hit Areas of North Phyongan Province Takes Place with Splendour

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Attends Inauguration Ceremony

Ideal “cultured rural towns” and beautiful villages epitomizing modern civilization have been built to greet the significant time of completion in the flood-hit areas of North Phyongan, Jagang and Ryanggang provinces, fully demonstrating the advantages and invincibility of Korean-style socialism.

An inauguration ceremony of dwelling houses in flood-hit areas of North Phyongan Province took place with splendour on December 21 in 2024.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers’ Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, was present at the ceremony.

He extended warm militant greetings to all the builders who had built the dwelling houses for the people in the flood-hit areas, bravely overcoming difficulties with absolute trust in the Party and firm faith in socialism.

The national anthem of the DPRK was played.

Kim Jong Un made a speech in celebration of the inauguration.

He said in the speech:

In support of the political ideals and intentions of their Party that places the safety and wellbeing of the people before anything else, the service personnel, members of youth shock brigades, officials and working people of North Phyongan Province and helpers from across the country have worked strenuously overcoming all manner of difficulties from the sweltering summer to the bitter winter, and thus built cultured rural residential areas that reflect the original features of our style of socialism and its future. On behalf of the Central Committee of the Party and the government of the Republic, I extend warm thanks to them.

This ceremony is an important occasion for demonstrating that our socialist cause that absolutely supports and serves the people, the foundations of the state and all that forms it, is advancing stoutly even in the face of all manner of difficulties. As I see the result of the campaign, I feel confident that this lower reaches of the Amnok River will remain durable in another severe flooding in 100 years; and as the flood victims will start a new life on the islands transformed beyond their original appearance, I am pleased with a feeling of relief.

We have so far launched into and waged major construction projects however difficult the circumstances were—even in the emergency anti-epidemic days—but no project has been implemented in a strained way like this one.

After pointing out the unrealistic and unscientific deviations revealed among officials during the campaign, like lack of far-sightedness in planning, Kim Jong Un continued:

Frankly speaking, when we launched into the campaign, several countries and international organizations expressed their will to assist us, but we made clear our determination to remain faithful to our approach to resolving problems by our own efforts at all costs. This was because we were confident in our own strength and, more importantly, our self-supporting spiritual and material asset that had to be developed further during this challenging project was more precious than anything else.

The in-depth analysis of the recent flooding revealed that it was not merely a disaster caused by the unpredictable force of nature, but an artificial disaster caused by the loose system of the relevant

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un, on behalf of the Central Committee of the Party and the government of the Republic, extended warm thanks to the service personnel, members of youth shock brigades, officials and working people of North Phyongan Province and helpers from across the country who, in support of the political ideals and intentions of the Party that places the safety and wellbeing of the people before anything else, had worked strenuously overcoming all manner of difficulties from the sweltering summer to the bitter winter, and thus built cultured rural residential areas that reflect the original features of our style of socialism and its future.

disaster prevention organs of our state plus the irresponsible sense of reasonability and carelessness of the officials. So I decided that through the course of self-reliant rehabilitation project, we should learn the subsequent cost and repent ourselves.

And I thought that the experience would be essential for us to cope with the possible disasters in the future.

If we had pinned hope on the assistance from others, there would not have been the dignity we are all now feeling, not to mention these wonderful transformations.

The recent rehabilitation project was not simply an undertaking to remove the aftermath of an unexpected disaster; it was a struggle that could surely emerge victorious by our own efforts as it was an undertaking for us to bring about epochal transformation with an attitude of taking responsibility for the future.

It was the Party's intention to further cultivate our internal forces for braving any manner of difficulties by our own strength while winding up the campaign on schedule without fail by dint of the united strength of the whole country, with a belief in the strength of our army and people including the young people.

It was an occasion for further cultivating the spirit of self-sustenance.

As the new year begins, we will launch into a new regional plan that correctly reflects our Party's and government's plans for the comprehensive development of socialism and is consistent with the local people's ideals, he noted, adding:

We should carry out our Party's crucial decisions to transform this region into a socialist fairyland by implementing one project after another in a three-dimensional way.

As the long-term plan is shown on this map here, next year we are going to build a combined greenhouse farm on a hundreds-of-hectare-wide area of Wihwa and Taji islands.

Over the past several years large-sized modern greenhouse farms have emerged in Jungphyong and Ryonpho on the east coast and in the capital city of Pyongyang, proving the economic effectiveness of vegetable cultivation in greenhouses. With a sea of greenhouses appearing here, we will be taking a huge step forward towards improving our people's standard of living.

We will assign these greenhouse projects to the People's Army units and the Paektusan Hero Youth Shock Brigade, so that they can once again demonstrate our creative abilities in an atmosphere of fierce competition.

Also included in this plan is the construction of a modern vegetable science institute as a base for scientific and technological research and information diffusion to put vegetable cultivation in greenhouses on a scientific, intensive and industrial basis, as well as the setting up of greenhouses for experimental cultivation, dwelling houses and public welfare facilities, thereby transforming the island areas into a model farm of the new era with potentials for development.

Along with this, we are faced with many tasks, including reinforcing the embankments in the islands on the lower reaches of the Amnok River and in Sinuiju and Uiju County to turn this region into a buttress free from any other possible damage, and building bases for political and cultural activities, service networks and other public facilities in the new residential districts.

We must never rest content with what we have achieved today or remain on the level we have attained; such construction work is a requisite for implementing the Party's plan to transform the country's border cities in a modern fashion.

I'd like to add that our future plan involves transforming Sinuiju into an ensemble of modernity, originality and national identity, a thriving city epitomizing the advanced level of socialist Korea and its might.

Here we should begin with developing the island areas and then transform Sinuiju. Then the locality in the northwestern part of the country will have excellent regional culture and potentials for development.

Construction is an undertaking which clearly represents our Party's ideology and policy. At present, the successes in this sector, for their political character, visual impact and great vitality, constitute a political symbol which instils into people the confidence in and optimism about the revolutionary cause and powerfully demonstrates the development level of the state.

Referring to the measures to be surely taken for the long-term development of construction, he went on:

We should put the new turning point of construction revolution and regional construction in the new era on the track of radical and steady development so as to adorn the historic cause of achieving the comprehensive national rejuvenation with substantial, simultaneous and multiple changes.

To this end, it is important to raise it as an important policy-oriented requirement to improve the level of specialization in construction and push powerfully ahead with this.

To improve the level of specialization in construction, three elements—design, workforce and equipment—should be regarded as important elements, and they should be steadily improved.

He reiterated that the Party and the government of the Republic would lead the sacred cause of realizing the long-cherished desire of the people across the country to the last without a moment's pause or interruption, and expressed belief that all the officials, service personnel of the People's Army and youth shock brigade members, who are about to start another new construction projects, would add another brilliant page to the annals of national rejuvenation by displaying indomitable spiritual strength and taking patriotic action with high pride in being participants in and direct undertakers of the sacred and worthwhile struggle of adding glory to our state's prestige and honour and bringing earlier the wellbeing of the local people.

Extending warm congratulations to the residents in the city of Sinuiju and Uiju County who will settle in new houses amid the blessings of the whole country and sincerely wishing all families happiness and harmony, he ardently called on all to make unyielding efforts to bring about the country's eternal prosperity and the people's wellbeing.

Kim Jong Un cut the inauguration tape.

He, together with the participants, looked round the new modern rural residential districts.

Feasting his eyes on Hadan-ri of Sinuiju where modern high-rise and low-rise urban-style rural dwelling houses imposingly stand in a safe zone, surrounded by solidly built embankments, he said with great satisfaction: I had a heavy heart at the thought of the homeless people in hardship, when I looked around the inundated area on a rubber boat a few months ago. But now I feast my eyes on this area that has turned into a splendid ideal socialist village. This is, indeed, a dramatic change.

Through the rehabilitation project in the Amnok River basin, we further boosted our confidence in the irresistible force of the single-hearted unity unique to our country, the one and only unity in the world, and our own strength and have come to pass through a new stage and process of development for regional and rural rejuvenation.

Our Party has been able to adorn its arduous journey of revolution full of trials with only victory and glory, because our people have sincerely trusted and followed it and defended its cause. Our people are just the benevolent patriots who firmly support this country with sincere sweat and efforts, shouldering every burden of the country at the time of hardship, while placing the state affairs before their household ones. We should make more strenuous efforts to firmly defend and hold in higher esteem such excellent and great people without parallel in the world and make them happiest in the world.

Going round modern rural residential districts, members of the Party central leadership body and other participants cherished more deeply the absolute truth that eternal victory and prosperity are in store for our powerful country and a rosy future for our people and posterity as they hold Kim Jong Un in high esteem as the father of the great socialist family.

Sinpho City Offshore Farm Inaugurated

A new model base of advanced offshore farming has been successfully built in the Phungo-dong area in the city of Sinpho, South Hamgyong Province, in accordance with the new regional development policy of the Workers' Party of Korea.

The inauguration of the Sinpho City Offshore Farm, a gift of love presented by the WPK to the people of the city, is a brilliant fruition of the outstanding ideas and leadership of the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un, who made a determination for the epochal cause of regional rejuvenation for a simultaneous and balanced development of the whole country and is stubbornly carrying it out. It is also a proud epitome of the Korean-style creative struggle showing the future changes in all the coastal cities and counties.

A new model base of advanced offshore farming has been successfully built in the Phungo-dong area in the city of Sinpho, South Hamgyong Province, in accordance with the new regional development policy of the Workers' Party of Korea.

An inauguration ceremony of the Sinpho City Offshore Farm took place with splendour on December 28 in 2024.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un attended the ceremony.

When he arrived amid the playing of welcome music, stormy cheers of "Hurrah!" resounded far and wide.

Kim Jong Un made a speech in celebration of the inauguration.

Noting that we greeted the emotional moment of declaring the inauguration of the Sinpho City Offshore Farm, built as a characteristic creation for regional transformation in the area which had been only a white beach with pine trees five months before, he said that this is the start of the important undertaking for ensuring steady progress of socialist construction, aspiring after a simultaneous and multiple development on a nationwide scale. And he continued:

In order to secure a substantial guarantee for the regional-industry revolution which the Party is stepping up with all efforts, it is necessary to lay foundations for sure and sustained exploitation and application. The cities and counties, where the areas of arable land are limited in comparison with a large number of population like the city of Sinpho should correctly find out the advantages in their natural resources and economic and geographical features to live and develop by their own efforts by relying on them.

The most precious income we have gained through the inauguration of the Sinpho City Offshore Farm is that the Sinpho people came to have a keen interest in the offshore farming which will renew the structure of our fishing industry and grasped the best method by dint of science. It is important for everyone to fully realize that the key to self-reliance and self-sustenance is in themselves, rather than talking about it in words, and put it into practice.

The farm's technicians and employees and the officers and men of the Korean People's Army involved in the construction project clearly proved the truthfulness and validity of the Party's policy with their firm faith in it and with their extraordinary determination and indomitable efforts, and the relevant sector of the KPA played a big role in laying the material and technical foundations of the farm by building and donating a new-type aquaculture mother ship.

It is a great pleasure for me to find a job for the people's wellbeing, but what is prouder and more worthwhile is when I see all the people unanimously and whole-heartedly respond to my decision and prove the validity of the Party's policy with sincere and stubborn efforts.

He then extended on behalf of the Party Central Committee and the government thanks to all the soldier-builders, Party members and other working people in South Hamgyong Province including those in Sinpho, and officials of the relevant sectors who made contributions to the implementation of the Party decision and the development of the country by creating such a valuable treasure for the country and people.

He went on:

We are faced with struggle tasks greater and more gigantic than the undertakings we have done. Officials, technicians and employees of the Sinpho City Offshore Farm should revitalize offshore aquaculture by drawing on the good experience gained in the first year's sea farming, continue to play the vanguard role in transforming the structure of the fishing industry on this basis and carry on business management methodologically so as to powerfully guarantee the development of the regional economy.

Saying that our ideals, courage, strenuous efforts and creation will certainly and continuously bring us prouder assets, he sincerely hoped that the city of Sinpho would thrive and become literally a "rich city" in the era of regional transformation and prosperity and thus bring pleasure and happiness to the people in the region.

When he finished his speech, cheers of "Hurrah!" went up again to the sky in December.

Kim Jong Un cut the inauguration tape.

He went round the Sinpho City Offshore Farm, together with members of the Party central leadership body and other participants.

Noting that to keep expanding successes on the basis of the precious experience gained in the construction of the Sinpho City

Offshore Farm is of great significance in dynamically accomplishing the historic cause of regional development into which the Party channels the greatest effort unprecedented in history, he gave precious instructions for all cities and counties to put their regional economy on a firm basis of development by making good use of the sea in the coastal areas and mountains in the mountainous areas and by revitalizing tourism in the places with tourist resources.

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Inspects Service Facilities in Kalma Coastal Resort

A Korean-style coastal tourist city is splendidly springing up in Myongsasimni, renowned as a coastal scenic spot in the country, demonstrating the dynamic spirit of socialist Korea that is ushering in a new era of transformation and civilization with a great ambition and ideals.

The Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea unveiled a plan for building characteristic tourist resorts that can satisfy the cultural and emotional demands of our people on the picturesque coasts by preserving the natural and geographical features of our maritime country, and has led the projects step by step. Under its meticulous guidance, a service network that includes many hotels, hostels, sea-bathing service facilities, various sports and recreation service facilities, and commercial and catering facilities, has been built in Myongsasimni on the Kalma peninsula, presenting a beautiful landscape.

On December 29 in 2024, Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, looked round several hotels and other service facilities that had been inaugurated.

Feasting his eyes with a bright smile on the coastal tourist city with a picturesque appearance along the beach beaten by clear blue waves of the East Sea, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un said:

When guiding the construction on the spot before, I said that Myongsasimni would be turned into a 4km-long stretch of beach crowded with people full of their happy laughter and optimism, a 4km-long tide of the people. Now the ideal has come true.

Noting that the Kalma Coastal Resort is very spectacular, beautiful and magnificent, he expressed great satisfaction that the major service facilities in the area have been built at a level high enough to successfully host even important external, political and cultural events of the state.

Saying that the service capability and level constitute the value of a tourist attraction and a factor decisive of its prospect, he gave instructions on managing and operating the service facilities on a regular basis, including proactively developing various kinds of new service categories and training world-level service workers.

Our country has tourist resources rich and diverse enough to arouse the envy of the world people, along with the political stability, institutional advantages and material and economic conditions essential for the development of tourist industry, he said, adding:

If we develop the tourist industry by making active use of such favourable conditions and environment, we will open up a new realm of socialist cultural construction and create another motive force for promoting regional rejuvenation and national economic growth.

To this end, it is necessary to ensure maximum efficiency and profitability through a scientific survey of tourist resources, and it is posed as an important task to set proper legal standards concerning the development of tourist zones, construction of tourist facilities

Noting that the Kalma Coastal Resort is very spectacular, beautiful and magnificent, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un expressed great satisfaction that the major service facilities in the area have been built at a level high enough to successfully host even important external, political and cultural events of the state.

and protection of nature and environment, raise the level of tourist information service and operation of tourist facilities to the world standards and diversify the range of gifts for tourists, he said, indicating detailed ways for developing the country's tourist industry.

Noting that construction of the Kalma Coastal Resort is the first big step of great significance in putting the country's tourist industry on a track of radical development, he went on:

In the future we should lay out a nice resort area that would link the Mt Kungang Resort and the Kalma Coastal Resort, proactively exploit the tourist resources in other regions, including mountaineering tourism in the Samjiyon area, to consolidate the material foundations for the economic development of regions and improvement of the people's living standards and fundamentally transform the appearance of the country.

He expressed belief that the Kalma Coastal Resort, reflective of the seaside scenery of our beautiful country, will demonstrate its great fame as a national and world-class scenic spot, a favourite haunt of our people and foreign friends.

The resort will open to the public from June 2025.

Kim Jong Un went round the factories.

Noting that the inauguration ceremonies of the regional-industry factories take place one after another in 20 cities and counties including Songchon and Jaeryong counties as a fruition of sincere efforts rendered for the people last year, he said:

This is an auspicious event of the whole country that gives great pleasure to the people who have started the worthwhile journey in the new year. As I see all the people of the region full of excitement and joy today, I feel greater pride and dignity in waging the revolution and struggle, and it makes my determination firmer to identify what should be done more for the people and shoulder their implementation.

DPRK Missile Administration Test-fires New-type Hypersonic Intermediate-range Ballistic Missile

The hypersonic glide vehicle of the missile, fired northeastward at a launch site in a suburb of Pyongyang, made a flight along the scheduled trajectory, attaining its first peak height of 99.8 kilometres and the second peak height of 42.5 kilometres at the speed amounting to twelve times of the speed of sound, and accurately landed on the simulated target waters in the open sea 1 500 kilometres away.

The Missile Administration of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea successfully conducted a test fire of new-type hypersonic intermediate-range ballistic missile on January 6.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the DPRK, oversaw the test fire through a monitoring system.

A new composite carbon fibre material was used in the manufacture of the engine body of the missile and a new comprehensive and effective method based on the already-accumulated technologies introduced in the flight and guidance control system.

Expressing great satisfaction over the result of the test fire, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un, with regard to the new weapon system, said:

The current test fire proved without doubt that we are steadily upgrading the powerful new-type weapon systems like the hypersonic intermediate-range ballistic missile to cope with different security threats posed by the hostile forces against our state at present.

Few countries in the world might possess such a weapon system.

Just like the intended purpose pursued by all military powers, the development of the new-type hypersonic missile is aimed mainly at steadily putting the country's nuclear war deterrent on an advanced basis by placing the means of changing the war situation, a weapon system which no one can cope with, at the core axis of our strategic deterrent.

This is clearly a plan and effort for self-defence, not an offensive plan and action.

As shown by the result of today's test fire, the effectiveness of the missile system that fully meets the expected military specifications has been confirmed.

The performance of our latest hypersonic intermediate-range missile system cannot be ignored worldwide, and the system can deal a serious military strike to a rival by effectively breaking through any of its dense defence barriers.

Through the current test of the strategic weapon, we fully demonstrated the potentiality and development speed of our inexhaustible self-defensive technical forces capable of fully coping with even the prospective threats and clearly showed the enemies what we are doing and that we are fully ready to use any means to defend our legitimate interests.

The hypersonic missile system will reliably contain any enemies in the Pacific region that can affect the security of our state.

We have acquired a technical force which is by no means easy to achieve.

This is a remarkable achievement and a special event in strengthening the self-defensive capabilities, which we should be proud of.

I express thanks to all the researchers and technicians and the workers of munitions industry enterprise, who contributed to the successful development of the new-type strategic weapon system.

The test fire had no negative impact on the security of the neighbouring countries.

The development of the defence capabilities of the DPRK aiming to be a military power will be further accelerated.

The number of expeditioners to Mt Paektu, the ancestral mountain which embodies the soul of the Korean nation and the sacred mountain in which the Korean revolution was pioneered, is on a steady increase.

In particular, in the wake of the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un's tour of the revolutionary battle sites in the area in the winter of 2019, there have been endless streams of expeditioners even in midwinter.

People from all walks of life visit the Paektusan Secret Camp, Chongbong, Konchang, Lake Samji, Taehongdan and other revolutionary battle and historic sites.

While marching along the path travelled by the anti-Japanese revolutionary fighters and looking round the slogan-bearing trees and other relics and remains they left in the primeval forests, they cherish deep in their hearts the ennobling spirit and indomitable will of the revolutionary forerunners.

Pushing their way through the virgin snow, warming frozen hands and feet at campfires and bivouacking in the blizzard-swept forests, they recall the unyielding revolutionary faith and fighting spirit and courage of the anti-Japanese guerrilla fighters.

Expeditioners on tour of the revolutionary battle sites in the Mt Paektu area cherish more deeply President Kim Il Sung's exploits of national liberation and the indomitable spirit of the anti-Japanese revolutionary fighters.

During the expedition they also conduct various political and cultural activities, such as reading sessions of the reminiscences of the anti-Japanese guerrilla fighters, question-and-answer study contests and poetry recitals.

They continue their march to Mt Paektu, engraving in their mind the soul and spirit of Paektu.

Looking at the majestic peaks and Lake Chon with great delight and excitement on the summit of the mountain, they raise cheers and fly the red flags, renewing their pledge to steadily carry forward the revolutionary cause of Juche pioneered on Mt Paektu, rallied firmly behind the Workers' Party of Korea.

They say that through the expedition to Mt Paektu in the midwinter blizzards they have learned the sacred history of the Korean revolution and the fighting spirit of the forerunners.

Moving into New Houses in Northwestern Regions

Thanks to the seasoned leadership of the Workers' Party of Korea, which regards the people-first principle as its revolutionary trait in the new era of overall national rejuvenation to translate the people's centuries-long desires into unprecedented reality, the flood-hit northwestern regions in the country were blessed with new houses.

In a matter of four months, multi- and single-storeyed houses for more than 15 000 families, nurseries, kindergartens, schools, hospitals and clinics were newly built, over 6 000 houses repaired, and projects of improving the embankments of the Amnok River and other rivers and rebuilding railways, roads and bridges vigorously pushed forward, presenting new scenery in the regions, a miracle in the history of construction.

In December last year ceremonies for moving into new houses took place at fairyland-like villages in North Phyongan, Jagang and Ryanggang provinces.

Conveyed to the flood victims at the ceremonies were the household goods sent by the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un and the licence for using the houses.

The new inhabitants, who were blessed with the loving care of the great motherly Party, and their children, who would fully realize their dreams and hopes, gained fuller confidence that they would enjoy a happier and more worthwhile life under the care of the Party and the state.

In Jagang Province

As the new year began, the Kim Chaek Iron and Steel Complex in the northern part of the country is ramping up production according to the Juche-based iron-making system in hearty response to the spirit of the Eleventh Plenary Meeting of the Eighth Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea.

All the employees, just as their predecessors did, have turned out as one to increase the output of various kinds and gauges of iron and steel, which are in urgent demand where grand socialist construction is ongoing.

In December 2023 they installed a new energy-saving oxygen blast furnace and 15 000m³/h oxygen plants. Then they adopted advanced techniques for the operation of the blast furnace and increased the output of iron and steel, thus demonstrating the viability of the Juche-based iron-making system.

The blast furnace workshop focuses on shortening the cycle of tapping and increasing the molten iron output per charge; to this end, it pays due concern to maintaining equipment and observing technical regulations in the operation of the furnace and the mixing of raw materials and fuel.

Steel workshop No. 2 and the hot-rolling workshop are tapping internal reserves and possibilities and pressing on with the upgrading of equipment by themselves to boost the efficiency of production.

Having readjusted and reinforced their processes, the Songphyong pipeline transport station, refractory workshop and others are doing their best to ensure enough supply of raw materials, fuel and refractories.

The management puts the main emphasis on applying reasonable methods of production while effectively operating the long-distance pipeline for the transport of ore concentrates.
