forward the greatness and beauty of the dear motherland forever with loyalty to it.

Kim Jong Un made a meaningful speech. On the occasion of National Day, he extended warm congratulations to the working people across the country and the officers and soldiers of the Korean People's Army, who, sharing their destiny with the motherland, are adding lustre to the prestige and honour of the Republic with resourceful creation and sincere efforts, as well as to the families across the country.

And he paid ennobling tribute to the heroes and patriotic martyrs, who had performed truly proud exploits for today and future of this Korea and remain alive forever in the memory of their motherland, and extended a warm militant salute to the generals, officers and soldiers of our army, who have been dispatched for overseas military operations and would be greeting the day with their glorious national flag in the bosom in the far-away alien land.

He also extended warm congratulations to the overseas compatriots who would be greeting their National Day with a patriotic desire for the prosperity of their homeland.

The cause of building a powerful country covering 77 years, which started on the day when the birth of a new Korea was proclaimed, is being reviewed proudly now that our state has attained a remarkable status, he said, adding no force can reverse the powerful current towards an era of prosperity, which we have created by ourselves.

Noting that at this moment, when our glorious and worthwhile struggle of immortal significance has brought into reality in history the high ambition that with force of unity fostered by the truth we will lead the whole world by and by, there is an iron truth that we cherish deep in our hearts, he stressed the truth is that socialism we chose is the one and only right road. It was on the strength of the justice and truth embodied in socialism that we have won all the glory we are enjoying today; having established a powerful political system and built a great national strength, we will not allow the destiny of our country to be left to any foreign forces' devices, he said.

As a symbol of this great and beautiful Korea, socialism is the cornerstone and inexhaustible dynamic power guaranteeing the eternal existence of our Republic and its infinite development and

Being told about the exploits our heroes performed by charging forward death-defyingly to implement the orders of their country, we thought of the faces of the upright parents who had instilled love for their country and native places into their pure hearts and brought them up to be stalwart men, and we could clearly see in our mind's eye the considerate persons who had supported them and given strength and courage to them during their faithful service in the army, he said, and went on: Ours is a heroic army that knows neither submission nor impossibility, and it surely emerges victorious in battle. This is because it is made up of the sons whose lives were given by the most tenacious, patriotic and just people in the world, the great heroic people who have shared their destiny with this country through an unyielding life and struggle generation after generation.

Though they passed away so young with a high ambition in their minds, the indomitable mettle and revolutionary spirit of the martyrs, who wrote a new chapter of victory in the history of our state at the cost of their blood and kindled the fierce flames of all-people heroism across the country, will remain etched in the minds of all our people.

Kim Jong Un paid high tribute once again to the bereaved families who regard the noble lives and final determinations of their children and husbands as admirable and honourable ones and support them, firmly mastering the sorrow at having lost their beloved people.

All the bereaved families burst out sobbing at the ardent sincerity of the fatherly leader who is glorifying the immortal feats and noble lives of the martyrs for all ages and creating legends of love and trust unprecedented in history.

Kim Jong Un presented to the bereaved families respectively photos of the martyrs wrapped in the national flag of the DPRK, the sacred flag of glory, whose dignity and honour were protected by the heroic soldiers who laid down their lives for that.

The moments of noble affection and moral obligation ensued.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un went round various places of the hospital including the diagnostic imaging department, emergency department, general laboratory, such specialized treatment departments as the dental department and intensive care unit of the internal department, general operating theatre, inpatient ward, conference hall and helipad.

We have paid close attention to fixing architectural aspects in a way that all spatial environments, starting from design in hospital construction, can beneficially work on the physical and mental health and treatment for the people, he said, noting that it is important to provide patients with a treatment environment and conditions that ensure their mental and psychological stability, as treatment and complete recovery are the core at hospitals. He appreciated that the interior and exterior of Pyongyang General Hospital are unique and refined in the architectural aspect and that various colours which can enhance visibility and formative beauty have been combined well to give the feelings of modernity and comfort.

Learning in detail about the interior finish and preparations for medical service of the hospital, he said it is great progress made in our design field that the primary attention has been paid to ensuring the smooth medical treatment plan, ranging from the placement of facilities and composition of space to the flow relation and the plane structure of individual rooms. He made a satisfactory appreciation of the fact that the hospital's level of functionality and specialization is high and the spatial and functional connectivity has been ensured wonderfully.

The hospital facilities and treatment equipment should be good, but the important thing is the medical forces, he said, adding that as there is a saying that cure is brought about by both medicine and sincerity, the main thing in treatment is the high level of medical practices and devotion of a doctor in charge of a patient. He gave an instruction to prepare all the medical workers and nurses well so that they would devote their all to the treatment with warm human love as well as professional qualifications.

Saying that three modern city and county hospitals are to be inaugurated at the end of this year and the beginning of next year and 20 regional hospitals to be built every year from next year according to the Party's policy on regional development, he stressed that

Pyongyang General Hospital ought to play a key and leading role in implementing the policy on the revolution in public health set forth by the Party which intends to rebuild and dramatically develop the country's public health on an advanced foundation.

He clarified a series of important tasks such as the issues of renewing some architectural styles in future hospital designs, working out detailed designs for every element according to a long-term development plan and exactly predicting and reflecting the future demands and changes in the designs.

He said that it is necessary to build an advanced and efficient digital medical service network and medical treatment system in city and county hospitals like Pyongyang General Hospital which has put the whole course of its management and medical service on an IT and intelligent basis. He noted it is important to establish a nationwide public health and medical service infrastructure comprising central hospitals, provincial, city and county hospitals and even individual families.

In the future, under the supervision of the relevant policy guidance department of the Party Central Committee, we will study a series of important issues for further strengthening the foundations of the country's public health, including the issue of setting up such essential medical institutions as emergency stations between city and county hospitals and ri clinics according to the population density and geographical and traffic conditions, he said.

The political significance and transformative power of construction are incomparably increasing in the course of our struggle to advance from a revolution to a more gigantic one and from a stage of development to a higher level of transformation. We should bear in mind the fact that however difficult and hard it may be at present, we should ensure that every structure created by dint of self-reliance becomes a precious treasure bringing happiness and wellbeing to our people and posterity and a substantial asset for national rejuvenation, Kim Jong Un stressed.

Expressing his pleasure of greeting the day when one of the cherished desires is to be fulfilled in the long run, he said with pride that the foundations of the country's public health will change fundamentally if modern hospitals rise up in over 200 cities and counties across the country in the future and that Pyongyang General Hospital will be recorded in the country's history of construction in the new era as a brilliant monumental entity symbolic of the first year of the public health revolution led by our Party and the substantial starting point of the public health development.

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Gives Field Guidance at Construction Site of Kusong City Hospital

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un was accompanied by Jo Yong Won, Ju Chang Il, Kim Jae Ryong, Kim Yong Su and other senior officials of the Central Committee of the WPK.

He heard from officials concerned a report on the progress made in the construction project.

the intention of the Party Central Committee, which declared this year as the first year of the revolution in public health and gives top priority to the construction of model city and county hospitals that will lead the overall development of public health of the country, through resolute labour struggle.

He went round various places of the hospital to learn about its construction.

The construction of regional hospitals, the start of a great revolution to transform public health facilities across the country before any other sectors, is the most responsible and important undertaking to ensure that regional people receive advanced medical services in their regions not inferior to those in the capital, he said, adding that this is a substantial and new qualitative change of regions that our Party looks forward to and meaningful progress in accelerating the building of a highly civilized and prospering state.

He noted that the public health revolution which is being carried on in parallel with the nationwide revolution in the regional industry is the most urgent task which will inject fresh vitality into our socialist public health, and that this work should be associated with the absolute principle and the view on service of our state which subordinates and orients everything to the promotion of the people's health and well-being. And he referred to a series of deviations revealed in the construction.

Saying that all the systems and elements of the hospital should successfully be combined in a scientific, practical and artistic way in many aspects of functionality, convenience and aesthetic beauty, he clarified his opinion on important issues of finishing the construction of the hospital.

Enjoying a view of the dramatically changing looks of the area, he expressed satisfaction, saying that the service personnel and young people are really powerful and that the island area, which was treated as barren land only a year ago due to flooding every year, has become a "treasure island" with the great potential to lead the radical development of the regional economy and the improvement of the material life of the local people.

Noting that the construction of the Sinuiju Combined Greenhouse Farm serves as an important occasion of clearly showing once again the higher stage and development process of regional rejuvenation led by the WPK, he stressed that through the change in the area, he has become more convinced that it is possible to successfully turn all regions of the country into the people's paradise within ten or twenty years.

Highly appreciating the staunch spirit of serving the people and efforts of the officers and men of the construction units and young vanguard who are devoting themselves for the eternal prosperity of the country with confidence and courage to transform the era with their own efforts, he asked the officials to convey without fail to the builders his special thanks and ardent call for building a monumental edifice demonstrating the eye-opening advance speed and development of Korean-style socialism in the northern area of the country and presenting it to the Ninth Congress of the WPK as a gift.

Acquainting himself with the progress in the project for the regional development and its long-term plan, he pointed out a series of deviations. He said that it is the core requirement of the WPK's policy on regional development to make the regional rejuvenation represent the advance and development of the state and the ideal appearance of regional areas the true looks of socialist Korea, stressing once again that the design sector should put efforts into making a meticulous calculation of economic effectiveness and profitability and applying optimum options while ensuring functionality and modernity in architectural design.

He noted that there should be no slightest mistake in the construction of the greenhouse farm as it is a project the WPK has launched on the largest scale for the independent and diversified development of the regional economy and is an important matter whose result is directly linked to the improvement of the material life of the regional people. And he indicated detailed tasks and ways for successfully completing the project, including the tasks of putting the farm management on an IT and automated basis at a high level, improving the environment around the construction site in a qualitative way by regarding it as a key project progress indicator equivalent to those of setting up facilities and assembling equipment and creating landscape and overall green area in the section of the permanent embankments in an aesthetic and scientific way.

He expressed expectation and belief that all the soldier-builders and members of the youth shock brigade would give full play to great mental strength, power of persistent execution and enthusiastic fighting spirit peculiar to the revolutionary army and heroic youth in the new era in the construction of the greenhouse farm and local development and thus make a report on their proud achievements made in the construction for regional change to the Ninth Congress of the WPK.

He clarified the tasks for directing primary efforts to rapidly developing the newly-introduced artificial intelligence technology and expanding and developing the capacity of serial production of

He added that having such strategic nuclear technological potentials is a great encouragement to the Party and a reliable guarantee for the struggle of our people, the victorious advance of our cause and the security of the future.

As he had clarified at the 13th Session of the 14th Supreme People's Assembly a few days before, the logic of keeping peace and security by force with a powerful deterrent, namely nuclear forces, as its backbone is the invariable stand of the DPRK, he said. He declared that steadily developing the state's nuclear response posture is an essential top priority task in view of the security environment of the Republic, the most correct choice for the present and future of the state and an unchangeable duty that we must carry out.

Saying that we should constantly strengthen and upgrade the nuclear shield and sword capable of reliably defending the security of the sovereignty, interests and right to development of the state, he noted that to this end, the WPK and the DPRK government will give top priority to providing every possibility and condition to the nuclear technology field and supporting it for its sustained development.

80th Anniversary

The 80th founding anniversary of the Workers' Party of Korea falls on October 10, 2025.

On this anniversary, the Korean people extend the greatest glory to President Kim Il Sung, Chairman Kim Jong Il and the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un, who founded the WPK and have strengthened and developed it into an invincible, revolutionary party.

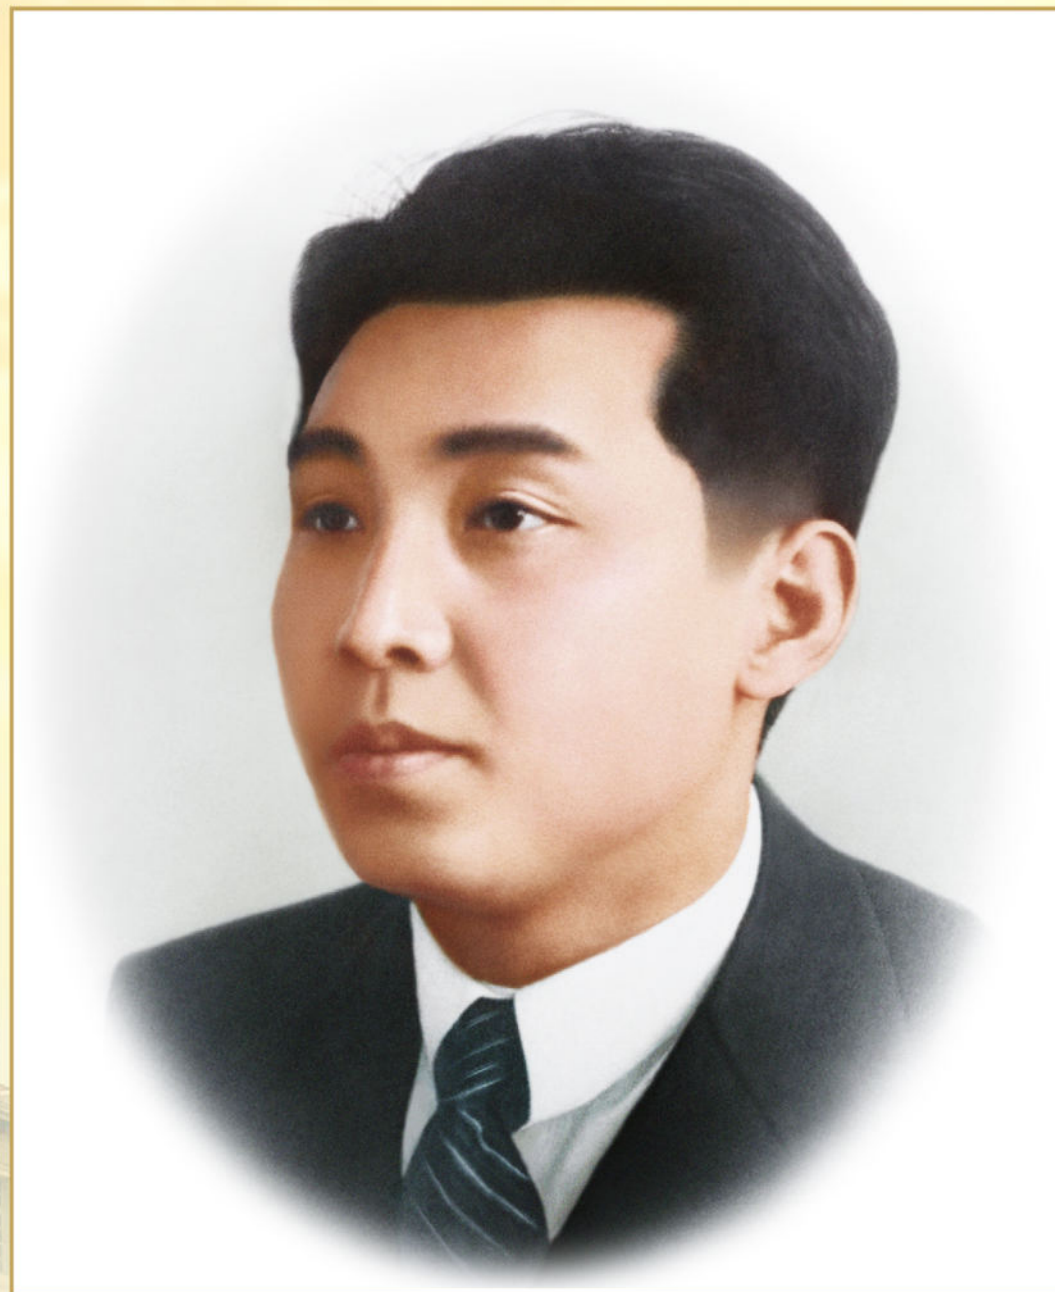

In the long period since it was founded, the Workers' Party of Korea has led the anti-imperialist, anti-feudal democratic revolution, socialist revolution and several stages of socialist construction along the road of victory without a single mistake or slightest deviation in its line, building people-centred Korean-style socialism on this land, and is now translating the people's dreams and ideals into reality.

On the occasion of its 80th founding anniversary, the Editorial Board gives an account of part of the imperishable exploits the WPK has achieved for the times and revolution, the country and people.

Kim Il Sung, founder of the Workers' Party of Korea

The great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung founded the Workers' Party of Korea.

In the initial period of the 20-year-long anti-Japanese revolutionary struggle to regain national sovereignty, he advanced an original policy of founding a party by setting up its basic organizations first and then expanding them steadily.

Despite the arduousness of the armed struggle, he made efforts to build the organizational and ideological backbone for founding a party and solidify its mass base. After Korea's liberation on August 15, 1945, he prioritized founding a revolutionary party of a Juche type and proclaimed it on October 10 the same year.

The Party achieved successes of historic significance—establishment of the people's power, enforcement of land reform, nationalization of major industries, promulgation of labour law and the law on sex equality, etc. Following the successful implementation of the tasks of the anti-imperialist, anti-feudal democratic revolution, the Korean People's Army was founded as the nation's revolutionary regular armed forces.

With the founding of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on September 9, 1948, the Korean people became masters of their state.

When they were stepping up the building of a new society, they

In the flames of the great Chollima upsurge, the first Chollima tractor and the first Sungni-58 truck were built in 35 and 40 days respectively, and the Pyongyang Speed was created of building one flat of a multi-storeyed apartment block in a matter of 14 minutes.

After facing a serious situation created by the war (1950-1953) the US imperialists unleashed.

The Workers' Party of Korea called upon all the people to defend the country, thus creating a legendary tale of victory in the three-year-long Fatherland Liberation War and defending freedom and independence of the nation with credit. The people carried out the gigantic tasks for post-war rehabilitation in a matter of three years.

RICH HARVEST BRINGS JOY

-Visit to the Ryongjon Fruit Farm in Pukchong County-

Apple harvesting is well underway at the Ryongjon Fruit Farm in Pukchong County, South Hamgyong Province.

All the trees being laden with a lot of apples, farmers beam broadly and proudly as they pick the fruits one by one.

Since this year began, they have been as busy as bees, going through all the processes—manuring, pruning, applying self-made bio-pesticides, etc.

In parallel with tending the trees according to strict standard procedures, they replaced old trees with new ones and expanded the orchard area, just as they had done over the past years.

All in all, there are good prospects of a bumper harvest for the upcoming years.

On the other hand, the farmers make effort to improve their technical skills. They regularly go to the farm's sci-tech learning space to keep abreast of recent trends in fruit farming.

The management have focused on introducing innovative research results to ensure higher per-hectare yields and better quality of fruits even in case of extreme weather events.

The employees are making redoubled efforts to achieve a greater success in fruit farming next year by drawing on the experience they have gained this year.
